Case Number B1261539

[PROPOSED] ORDER

Date: June 7, 2013
Time: 9:00 a.m.
Dept: 88

21 WHEREFORE THE COURT having read and considered the Memorandum of Points and
22 Authorities, oral argument, and other evidence in support of the Board of Accountancy's
23 recommendation that defendant Steven Schnur be ordered, as a condition of his own cognizance
24 release, bail, or probation, to refrain from utilizing his Certified Public Accountant License
25 Number 20216 and working in any capacity as an accountant. Having heard and considered any 26 arguments or additional information from the parties:

27 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT while this criminal matter is pending, while defendant
28 is on criminal probation, or until the conclusion of any disciplinary action to be filed by the

1 Board of Accountancy, defendant is:

- 2 • Prohibited from engaging in any accountant activities;
- 3 • Prohibited from performing any tasks as a accountant, including contacting or
- 4 responding to clients or potential clients including, but not limited to, those activities
- 5 listed in Business and Professions Code section 5051;
- 6 • Prohibited from managing, administer, or be a consultant to any licensee of the
- 7 Board;
- 8 • Prohibited from engaging in any activity that requires the professional judgment of a
- 9 accountant;
- 10 • Prohibited from directing or controlling any aspect of the practice of accountancy;
- 11 and
- 12 • Ordered to stay away from any current accountant-related employment.

13 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defendant shall immediately surrender to the Board of 14 Accountancy, or its representative, all indicia of licensure for his accountancy license for 15 safekeeping.
